Testimonials

Devon is an entrepreneurial force to be reckoned with by embracing her and giving her all the support you can! She is focused on ventures that give back by empowering youth and communities for a better world. What, I ask you, could be better than that?

- Kellee Sikes - Strategist on For-Profit Impact, P3 Strategies, LLC

Devon is a wonderful walking source of information who never meets a stranger. She knows EVERYBODY, or at least it seems that way. Devon is smart, energetic, creative and resourceful. She's a great team-player, and yet an effective leader. But most importantly, Devon cares deeply about helping others with all that she has, and with all that she is. She's just an amazing woman.

- Anita Brandon, Former Director, East St. Louis Community College Center

Mrs. Devon Moody Graham is a strong role model for the youth of today. She has truly made a positive impact on her community by speaking to young people and encouraging them to make the right educational, college and career decisions. She lifts, inspire and motivates....

- Audrey Jackson-Luster, Student Transition Interventionist, E. St. Louis Sr. High School

Devon Moody-Graham, MBA is an Urban Business Strategist and native of East St. Louis, IL dedicated to seeing a positive shift in small business, community and economic development in underserved communities. Over the past 10 years she has created a network of business partners and resources to help people in underserved communities build their own economies through entrepreneurship. As a small business advocate and consultant, she assists corporations and non-profits with building partnerships, program development, finding capital resources and non-profit management.

She is the founder of Creatively Strategic Solutions LLC which includes entrepreneurial consulting, leadership and program development, and initiatives for traditionally under supported groups such as mothers who aspire to become business owners called CEOMOM. She also founded The Biz Spot Community, a 501c3 organization dedicated to the creation, collaboration, and cultivation of businesses in underserved areas for youth and young adults. The Biz Spot provides entrepreneurs in underserved areas with business development programs, foundational and advanced trainings, professional business services, and technology integration. Through the programming she has worked with over 7000 youth, support 14 youth businesses, and helped 100+ small businesses to be started. She is currently working on a tech platform to teach middle and high school students about economic development, problem solving, small business, and critical thinking called The Biz Creator.
